1. Record Video Interview

Record Video:

1. Familiarize yourself with talking points (below)
2. Record video on smart device addressing all talking points
3. Save video to smart device (i.e. iPhone, iPad, Android, etc.) and/or computer

Key Tips:

- Videos will not be judged on the quality of video and should be taped in 1 recording on a smart device – not professionally edited
- Nominees should address all of the key talking points (below) and any other outstanding or distinguishing points that set you apart
- Videos should be 1 – 2 minutes to qualify (not to exceed 2 minutes)
- All judging criteria and more can be found at: www.TampaAOE.com

Video Talking Points:

- What community and product do you sell or oversee? (non-sales roles should provide a brief description of the position)
- How long have you been in the industry and your approach to your career path
- What sales goals were set vs. personal goals
- To what do you attribute your success, greatest accomplishments, specific approach or technique
- What obstacles/challenges have you faced in your current role and how did you overcome them

Deadline to submit entries – September 27

2. Upload Video to YouTube

How to upload a video to YouTube on a computer

1. Log in to your YouTube account.
2. Click on the video icon on the right-hand side of the window, which can be found next to your user icon, messages, apps, and notifications.
3. Click 'Upload Video.'
4. Then, press 'select files to upload' to find the video file saved on your computer.
5. Once you select a file, YouTube will automatically upload your video and save it to your channel.
6. From here you have a set of optional settings you can add to your video. Add a title to your video and add a description of the video so people know what your content is about before watching it.
7. Once you are finished you will be taken to your channel load page where you have more tools and where you can find a sharable link and download your original video file.
8. Your video is now uploaded to YouTube and ready to be shared!
